

This is a basic site map showing the flow of the Kundalini Design website. Here we can easily see the different pages of the site. When planning a website it is essential to create a site map.

